

TMG Newsletter Sunday, 27th October 2024

What's New on the Site over the last month?

We have received our first readers' contributions plus some editorial features. You can find all new additions by following our site blog, where you can also comment online!

Coming Soon to TMG

- This weekend is the Spalding MRC Exhibition
- Station Visits on Coventry to Wolverton Line
- Manchester MRC Exhibition (Mid-December)
- Two Railway I-Spy Books (New Versions)

What happens at your model railway club?

A friend was asked this by his 21-year-old daughter. He answered that the members make things, chat, read railway magazines and of course drink tea with biscuits. He was stunned by her response, "So, it's just like the Women's Institute but for middle-aged men then!" Take that!

What can TMG do for your Club, Shop or Website?

Train Mad Grandad exists only to promote the wonderful hobbies of trainspotting and railway modelling in the twenty first century! We collect stories, press articles, photo albums, railway visits, folk music and poetry, reader contributions and much more. It is just a light-hearted approach that warms the heart and perhaps, educates a little bit!

TMG expects no money,

Please tell us how we can help to promote your organisation by creating links and publishing reports, prospectuses, feature articles, YOU TELL TMG what could be!

Subscribe to receiving Monthly Updates

TMG does not want to become a nuisance poster in your Inbox, so this will be the last contact for some while. However, newsletters etc can be sent regularly if you follow the subscribe link. Unsubscribing is available!

You Tube of the Week

Each Sunday, TMG displays an original video that are a bit "out of the ordinary". Recent videos have included:

- Halesworth Moving Platforms in Suffolk
- Man builds full size railway in his back garden.
- British Railways Advert - HST v Class 37 Police Car!
- Liverpool Overhead Railway - Computer Generated
- Sci-Fi: 20th century retro Train Punk

By clicking on Backtrack, you can easily access our You Tube of the Week archive!

Have a great day, Train Mad Grandad!
